

After completing their 12th board exams, students should apply for entrance exams such as JEE or recognized State Entrance Exams.

If the students achieve a good percentile in their respective entrance exams, they become eligible for various scholarships:

- TFWS (Tuition Fee Waiver Scheme) – offers limited seats, eligible only for students scoring 90+ percentile.
- EWS, EBC, and other respective scholarships are also available based on the eligibility criteria.

Eligibility

Students studying at post-matriculation level

To be eligible, an applicant must:-

- be a permanent resident of respective states
- belong to the ST/SC/OBC/SEBC/EBC category
- be studying at the post-matric level
- have secured a minimum of 50% marks in the previous examination (For EBC/OBC/SEBC category student)
- have an annual family income of less than ₹800,000

Note:- Applicants studying both within and outside are eligible to apply for the scholarship.

Documents:-

- Aadhaar number
- Ration Card
- Applicant's photograph
- Income certificate
- Domicile certificate
- Caste certificate(for eligible caste student only not required for EBC candidates)
- Divyang certificate (if applicable)

- Front page of passbook for bank account details of the student
- Matriculation certificate (except in case of non-matriculate ITI courses)
- Previous examination qualifying certificate.
- Benefits
- The selected candidates will receive financial assistance to continue higher studies.

EWS Certificate – Who is eligible to claim EWS Quota?

The government has laid down certain eligibility conditions for candidates to be able to claim reservations under this new category. EWS full form is 'Economically Weaker Section'.

To be eligible for the EWS certificate, you will have to satisfy all the conditions mentioned below (EWS Criteria):

1. You should be a 'general' candidate (not covered under reservation for SC, ST or OBC).
2. Your family's gross annual income should be below Rs. 8 lakhs. This includes income from all sources such as agriculture, salary, business, etc. for the financial year before you apply for the exam.
3. Your family should not own agricultural land of size 5 acres or more.
4. Your family should not own a residential flat of area 1000 square feet or more.
5. Your family should not own a residential plot (in notified municipalities) of an area 100 square yards or more.
6. Your family should not own a residential plot (other than in notified municipalities) of area 200 square yards or more.

Documents required for TFWS:

- Domicile certificate, Income certificate, Aadhar card, Bank account statements, Marksheets of the previous academic year

Note :- Every states have their own website for various scholarships enrollment